

DEER RIDGE IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION

Declaration of Restrictions (2001) and By-Laws
for 2017 and Thereafter

REVISED 5/27/2017

This modified Declaration of Restrictions (DOR) is on record with the State of Illinois; filed in Johnson County on May 3rd, 2001; in the RB 371 pages 154-158 under file number 000951 and bears the Corporate Seal of the Deer Ridge Improvement Association.

DEER RIDGE IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATIONS
DECLARATION OF RESTRICTIONS
FOR 2000 AND THEREAFTER

Whereas, Randall Taylor and Lucille Taylor, as the record owners and subdividers of Deer Ridge Subdivision, heretofore caused to be prepared and recorded certain Declaration of Restrictions to promote the orderly, beneficial development and enjoyment of the land and lots in the original plat of the subdivision and its several additions, more particularly described and shown on the plats as recorded as follows:

Original Plat, lots 1-81, recorded Dec. 20th, 1968 in Plat Book 2 at page 134.

Second Addition, lots 200-211, recorded Sept. 30th, 1976 in Plat Book 3 at page 29, Lettered Lots A-S, B1-J1, AA-JJ.

WHEREAS, these declarations provided for the establishment of a not-for-profit corporation having as its members all the owners of the lots in the subdivision, once 25% of the lots had been sold; and

WHEREAS, those declarations also provided a means to release, modify, revise, amend, or extend the restrictions, should the owners of 75% of the total area of the premises agree to do so by written instrument recorded in the Office of the Recorder of Johnson County Illinois before the expiration of 40 years after the date of the preceding declarations, and

WHEREAS, for the purpose of obtaining the most orderly and beneficial development of the land therein contained, it remains desirable and necessary to limit the character and nature of the improvements to be made thereon and the use of such premises,

NOW, THEREFORE, and in order to obtain the benefits hereinabove described, the undersigned, as record owners of said premises, for themselves, their successors, grantees and assigns, do HEREBY DECLARE that the real estate described herein, shall, subject to the limitations and terms thereof, be and remain subject to the following restrictions as to the use of the premises and nature and character of the improvements to be made thereupon.

1. The premises shall be used for private, residential purposes only, with no industrial activity or business enterprise to be permitted in connection with such residential occupation. No property and or residence may be purchased or built for the commercial or income producing purpose of using as rental property in Deer Ridge.
2. The improvement or improvements to be made, constructed and maintained upon any portion of the premises shall be of a permanent nature for either seasonal or year round occupancy, and shall be limited to one such residence, together with all ordinary and usual appurtenant outbuildings and structures customary to the enjoyment of the residence. However no multi-unit or apartment structures shall be constructed or maintained.

3. All cottages and permanent homes constructed on water front lots shall have a minimum of Nine Hundred Eighty (980) square feet of ground floor living area, exclusive of carport, breezeway, or garage, if any, and will all be of new construction and completed within twenty-four (24) months after construction begins.

4. All cottages and homes constructed in Deer Ridge Subdivision shall have a minimum of Nine Hundred Eight (980) square feet of living area, exclusive of the carport, breezeway and garage, if any, and will all be of new construction, and completed within twenty-four (24) months after construction begins.

5. Trailers, will be permitted on all lots, shown on the original plat of Deer Ridge, except waterfront, but must have a minimum of 980 square feet of floor space. No trailers shall be allowed on Lots 82 through 134 in Deer Ridge First addition. This limitation on trailers does not prohibit placement of modular homes.

6. All facilities shall be constructed to fulfill the requirements of the Southern Seven Health Department.

7. Use of water from the Lake of Egypt on and for the development and use of said premises by the Purchaser and his heirs and (or its) assigns shall be by special contract with the Seller under which the Purchaser abides by the rules and regulations relative thereto of the Seller.

8. ACCESS TO LAKE OF EGYPT:

A. The Purchaser, his heirs (or) assigns, shall have access to the Lake with all the privileges for recreation according to the official rules and regulations governing the Lake of Egypt.

B. The Purchaser, his heirs or assigns, agree to maintain the shoreline property to the extent necessary to prevent soil erosion and water pollution and if necessary to riprap the shoreline and build walkways to conform to good conservation practices.

C. The owner or owners of the lots abutting the easement property lying between said lots and the lake shore, shall execute a standard official Lake of Egypt shoreline agreement.

9. More than 25% of the area of the premises herein described having been sold the then owners of the entire parcel herein described have formed a not-for-profit corporation consisting of themselves as members, with power of assessment of its membership, for the purpose of providing an adequate system of "security lights" throughout the entire premises in such locations and such intervals as will reduce to a minimum the danger of injury to persons or property inherent in a residential area during the hours of darkness. The not for profit corporation so formed shall have all the powers necessary, from time to time, to keep such a system in operation and to defray the cost of providing a service to itself on such equitable basis as the members thereof shall elect and provide in the by-laws of the corporation. Said not for profit corporation shall use the lot assessment revenue per year, as voted by the property owners, for the purpose of maintaining the lighting system, roads, beach, dock, pavilion and any other areas deemed necessary to insure a safe and comfortable community.

The obligation to accept membership in said not for profit corporation shall run with the land and every lot and part thereof. From and after January 1, 2000, an assessment that remains unpaid after it is due shall have a lien upon the lot or lots to which it is applicable, in favor of the Deer Ridge Improvement Association but shall not have wave preference over the regards of any bonafide purchaser, mortgager, judgment creditor or other lien holder arising prior to the filing of a notice of such unpaid assessment lien in the Office of the Recorder of Johnson County Illinois, but upon filing the lien shall include the cost of filing.

10. Any owner or occupant of any parcel, tract or lot in the premises herein described shall have the right to enforce compliance with or enjoin violation of any of the restrictions herein contained whether occurring or threatened against any other owner or occupant by suit at law or in equity in a court of competent jurisdiction together with the right to recover costs of such proceeding including reasonable attorney's fees incurred in connection herewith upon obtaining a favorable judgment, order or decree. Any remedy or remedies available to an owner or occupant hereunder shall be cumulative, and the failure of any or all the owners or occupants to enforce compliance or enjoin violation in one instance shall not be constructed to be a waiver of the right to seek relief against subsequent violations.

11. The restrictions herein contained shall be and remain in force and effect and shall be binding upon all owners or occupants of any portion of the premises herein described for a period of 40 years from and after the date hereof, subject to release, modification, revision, amendment or extension in the manner hereinafter provided.

12. When at any time prior to the expiration of these restrictions, the owners of 75% of the total area of the premises known as Deer Ridge Subdivision, shall by written instrument agree to release, modify, revise, and amend or extend any or all of the restrictions herein contained upon recording of such instrument in the Office of the Recorder of Deeds of Johnson County aforesaid, these restrictions shall thereafter be so released, modified, revised, amended or extended according to the tenor of such instrument, and to that end and to that extent all deeds of conveyance of any portion of the premises herein described shall be subject to the right, power and interest of the remaining owners of said premises, from time to time, to so release, modify, revise, amend or extend the restrictions herein contained.

13. Upon recording of this instrument in the Office of the Recorder of Deeds of Johnson County, aforesaid, all grants or deed of conveyance of any estate or interest in any portion of the premises herein described thereafter delivered shall be subject to and limited by the provisions herein contained by reference hereto to the same extent as would be if the terms and provisions of the instrument were expressly contained in the body of the grant or deed of conveyance. The terms and provisions of this instrument shall be strictly construed in the favor of the undersigned, its grantees, successors and assigns against any attack, whether direct or collateral, and shall be deemed to be desirable, so that any judgment, order or decree rendering one or more of these restrictions unenforceable shall not affect the enforceability of the remaining restrictions.

END OF THE DECLARATION OF RESTRICTIONS
For the Deer Ridge Improvement Association

Deer Ridge Improvement Association

A "household " shall consist of a lot, or group of lots, for which an assessment fee has been paid and collected for the current year, in accordance with the rules and regulations for assessments adopted by the board of directors pursuant to Article XV of these By-Laws.

ARTICLE IV
Meeting of Members

SECTION 1. ANNUAL MEETINGS. An annual meeting of the members shall be held on the Saturday of Labor Day weekend, in the year beginning 2000, at the hour of 10:00 o'clock a.m. for the purpose of electing directors and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting. A spring meeting shall also be held during Memorial Day weekend of each year after 1999, for the transaction of such business as may come before the meeting, which shall also be on Saturday at 10:00 o'clock a.m.

SECTION 2. SPECIAL MEETINGS. Special meetings of the members may be called either by the president, the board of directors or not less than one-tenth (1/10) of the members having voting rights. Notice of special meetings must be sent to all members at least 10 days in advance. Such notice must list the time, place, and purpose of the special meeting.

SECTION 3. PLACE OF MEETING. The board of directors may designate any place as the place of meeting for any annual meeting or any special meeting called by the board of directors. If no designation is made, or if a special meeting be otherwise called, the place or meeting shall be the registered office of the corporation with the State of Illinois, provided however, that if all of the members, shall at any time and place and consent to the holding of a meeting shall be valid without call or notice, and at such meeting any corporate action may be taken.

SECTION 4. NOTICE OF MEETINGS. Written or printed notice, stating the place, day and hour of any meeting of members shall be delivered, either personally or by mail, to each member entitled to vote at such meeting, not less than five (5) days but no more than forty (40) days, before the date of such meeting, by or at the direction of the president, or the secretary, or the officers or persons calling the meeting. In case of a special meeting or when required by statute or by these by-laws, the purpose for which the meeting is called shall be stated in the notice. If mailed, the notice of meeting shall be deemed delivered when deposited in the United States Mail, addressed to the member at his address as it appears on the records of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid.

SECTION 5. INFORMAL ACTION BY MEMBERS. Any action required to be taken at a meeting of the members of the corporation, or any other action which may be taken at a meeting of members, may be taken without a meeting, if consent in writing, setting forth the action taken, shall be signed by a majority of the members entitled to vote with respect to the matter thereof.

SECTION 6. QUORUM. The members holding one-fourth (1/4) of the votes which may be cast at any meeting shall constitute a quorum at such meeting. If a quorum is not present at any meeting of members, a majority of the members present may adjourn the meeting, from time to time, without further notice.

SECTION 7. PROXIES. At any meeting of members, a member entitled to vote may vote either in person or by a proxy executed in writing by the member or by his duly authorized attorney-in-fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven (11) months from the date of its execution, unless otherwise provided in the proxy. All proxies must be notarized and state the name of the one authorized to vote on behalf of the member. In the event specific designation is not made or the proxy is left blank, a board of director will be assigned the authority to vote on behalf of the one submitting the proxy in favor of the board of directors recommended position on the voted upon issue.

ARTICLE V Board of Directors

SECTION 1. GENERAL POWERS. The affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors.

SECTION 2. NUMBER, TENURE, & QUALIFICATIONS. Each director must be a member of the corporation in good standing. No two members of the same household may serve on the board at the same time. A household being defined as a husband/wife, mother/father, sister/brother or (adult) child; not another family member living in the same house. Each director shall hold office for two years; four office holders to be elected in even numbered years, and at least three (3) to be elected in odd numbered years.

SECTION 3. REGULAR MEETINGS. A regular meeting of the board of directors shall be held without notice other than this by-law, immediately after, and at the same place as the annual meeting of members, for the election of officers. The board of directors may provide by resolution the time and place, for the holding of additional regular meetings of the board, without notice than such resolution.

SECTION 4. SPECIAL MEETINGS. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by, or at the request of, the president or any three (3) directors. The persons authorized to call special meetings of the board may fix any place as the place for holding any special meeting of the board called by them. Notice of any special meeting of the board of directors shall be given by the president, by written notice, delivered personally, or sent by electronic mail or by the postal service, to each director at his address as shown by the records of the corporation. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the U.S. Mail, in a sealed envelope. Any director may waive notice of any meeting. The attendance of a director at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

SECTION 5. QUORUM. A majority of the board of directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the board, provided that, if less than a majority of the directors are present at said meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting to another time, without further notice.

SECTION 6. MANNER OF ACTING. The act of a majority of the directors present at a meeting, at which a quorum is present, shall be an act of the board of directors, except where otherwise provided by law, or by these by-laws.

SECTION 7. VACANCIES. In the event of a vacancy on the board of directors created by resignation or demise, the position will remain unfilled until the next annual meeting of the Association where an election is to be held, unless such vacancy would create a board with less than the minimum number of directors required by the articles of Incorporation which is three (3) members who are full-time residents of Deer Ridge.

SECTION 8. COMPENSATION. Directors as such shall not receive any slated salaries for their services.

ARTICLE VI Officers

SECTION 1. OFFICERS. The officers of the corporation shall be a president, one or more vice presidents, the number therefore to be determined by the board of directors, a secretary-treasurer and such other officers as may be elected in accordance with the provisions of this article. The board of directors may elect or appoint such other officers, including one or more assistant secretary-treasurers, as it shall deem desirable, such officers to have the authority and perform the duties prescribed, from time to time, by the board of directors. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person, except the offices of the president and secretary-treasurer.

SECTION 2. ELECTION AND TERM OF OFFICE. The officers of the corporation shall be elected by the board of directors immediately after, and at the same place, as the annual meeting of members. Each officer shall hold office for two (2) years.

SECTION 3. REMOVAL. Any officer or agent elected or appointed by the board of directors may be removed by a majority vote of the board of directors whenever in its judgment the best interest of the corporation would be served thereby.

SECTION 4. VACANCIES. A vacancy in any office, because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification, or otherwise, will be filled at the next Association meeting where an election is to be held.

SECTION 5. PRESIDENT. The president shall be the principal executive officer of the corporation and shall in general supervise and control all of the business and affairs of the corporation. He or she shall preside at all the meetings of the members and of the board of directors. He or she may sign, with the secretary-treasurer, or any other proper officer of the corporation authorized by the board of directors, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts, or other instruments which the board of directors have authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the board of directors, or by these by-laws, or by statute, to some other officer or agent of the corporation; and in general shall perform all duties incident to the office of the president, and such other duties as may be prescribed by the board of directors, from time to time.

SECTION 6. VICE PRESIDENT. In the absence of the president or in the event of his/her inability or refusal to act, the vice president, or in the event there be more than one vice president, the vice president in order of their election, shall perform the duties of the president, and when so acting, shall have all the power of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the president. Any vice president shall perform such other duties as from time to time be assigned to him by the president, or by the board of directors.

SECTION 7. SECRETARY-TREASURER. The secretary-treasurer shall keep the minutes of the meetings of the members, and of the board of directors in one or more books provided for that purpose; see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provision of these by-laws or as required by law; be custodian of the corporate records and of the seal of the corporation and see that the seal of the corporation is affixed to all documents, the execution of which on behalf of the corporation under its seal is duly authorized in accordance with the provisions of these by-laws; keep a register of post office address of each member; which shall be furnished to the secretary by each member; and in general perform all duties incident to the office of secretary-treasurer and such duties as from time to time may be assigned to him/her by the president or board of directors.

If required, by the board of directors, the secretary-treasurer shall give the bond for the faithful discharge of his/her duties in such sum, and with such surety or sureties as the board of directors shall determine. The cost of such bond withheld shall be paid for by the corporation. He/we shall have charge and custody of and be responsible for all funds and securities of the corporation; receive and give receipts for moneys due and payable to the corporation; from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such moneys in the name of the corporation in such banks, trust companies or other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of ARTICLE VIII of these by-laws; and in general, perform all duties incident to the general office of treasurer and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him/her by the president, or by the board of directors.

SECTION 8. ASSISTANT SECRETARY-TREASURER. The assistant secretary-treasurer, in general, shall perform such duties as shall be assigned to him/her by the secretary/treasurer, or by the president of the board of directors. If required by the board of directors, the assistant secretary-treasurer shall give bond for the faithful discharge of his/her duties in such sums and with such sureties as the board of directors shall determine.

ARTICLE VII Committees

SECTION 1. COMMITTEES OF DIRECTORS. The board of directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the directors in office, may designate one or more committees, each of which shall consist of one or more directors, which committees, to the extent provided in said resolution, shall have and exercise the authority of the board of directors in the management of the corporation; but the designation of such committees and the delegation thereto of authority shall not operate to relieve the board of directors, or any individual director of any responsibility imposed upon it by law.

SECTION 2. OTHER COMMITTEES. Other committees not having and exercising the authority of the board of directors in the management of the corporation may be designated by a resolution adopted by a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present. Except as otherwise provided in such resolution, members of each such committee shall be members of the corporation, and the president of the corporation shall appoint the members thereof. Any member thereof may be removed by the person or persons authorized to appoint such member whenever in the judgment the best interest of the corporation shall be served by such removal.

SECTION 3. TERM OF OFFICE. Each member of a committee shall continue as such until the next annual meeting of the members of the corporation and until his successor is appointed, unless the committee shall be sooner terminated, or unless such member be removed from such committee, or unless such member shall cease to qualify as a member thereof.

SECTION 4. CHAIRMAN. One member of each committee shall be appointed chairman.

SECTION 5. VACANCIES. A vacancy in the membership of any committee may be filled by appointments made in the same manner provided in the case of the original appointments.

SECTION 6. QUORUM. Unless otherwise provided in the resolution of the board of directors designating a committee, a majority of the whole committee shall constitute a quorum and the act of the majority of the members present at the meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the committee.

SECTION 7. RULES. Each committee may adopt rules for its own government not inconsistent with these by-laws or with rules adopted by the board of directors.

ARTICLE VIII
Contracts, Deposits, and Funds

SECTION 1. CONTRACTS. The board of directors may authorize any officer, or agent of the corporation, in addition to the officers so authorized by these by-laws, to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of, and on behalf of the corporation and such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.

SECTION 2. CHECKS, DRAFTS, ETC. All checks, drafts or other orders for the payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of the corporation, shall be signed by such officer, agent, or the corporation and in such manner as shall from time to time to be determined by resolution of the board of directors, such instruments shall be signed by the secretary-treasurer and counter-signed by the president or a vice president of the corporation.

SECTION 3. DEPOSITS. All funds of the corporation shall be deposited to the credit of the corporation in such banks, trust companies or other depositories as the board of directors may select.

SECTION 4. GIFTS. The board of directors may accept on behalf of the corporation any contribution, gift, bequest devised for the general purpose or for any special purpose of the corporation.

ARTICLE IX
Books and Records

The corporation shall keep correct and complete books and records of account and shall also keep minutes of the proceedings of its members, board of directors and committees having any of the authority of the board of directors, and shall keep at the registered principal office a record giving the names and addresses of the members entitled to vote. All books and records of the corporation may be inspected by any member, agent or attorney for any proper purpose at any reasonable time.
